REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Election, Tuesday, November 4 1884

FOR PRESIDENT,
JAMES G. BLAINE,
OF MAINE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN A. LOGAN,
OF ILLINOIS.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

At Large { C. J. L. MEYER, F. A. HOSHER

First District—J. W. OSTRANDER.
Second District—D. C. VAN BRUNT.
Third District—JOSEPH HARRIS.
Fourth District—JOHN RUGEE.
Fifth District—E. W. ARNDT.
Sixth District—B. T. ROGERS.
Seventh District—W. M. FOGO.
Eighth District—CANUTE ANDERSON.
Ninth District—E. L. BROWNS.

The only democrat who cannot see alarm in the party's outlook, is a blind one.

There is a doleful sound ringing in the democratic ear from every quarter except the solid south.

The republican procession is growing larger and larger every day. It will be the biggest march to victory the republicans ever made in this country.

Mr. C. H. Bierer, of Uniontown, Pennsylvania, won $9,000 on the Ohio election. He now offers to bet $25,000 on republican success in New York and Indiana.

Senator Beck, of Kentucky, regrets that the democrats didn't nominate Thurman. That regret is shared generally by the democratic party, because Cleveland will be beaten.

The republican party in Indiana was never better organized than it is in this campaign, and it will elect Major Calkins governor, and give its electoral vote to Blaine and Logan.

The more Mr. Merton goes through the First district on a canvassing expedition, the greater will be Mr. Caswell's majority. The comparison between the two men is a good campaign document for Mr. Caswell.

The seventh contribution of the democratic party to the national democratic cemetery, will be a man weighing 240 pounds, on whose 19 inch collar are the initials, G. C., which might mean "goose cooked."

Mr. Romeis, who beat Frank Hurd for congress in the Tenth Ohio district used to be a baggage master, or more properly speaking, a baggage smasher. He will be forgiven for all the baggage he ever smashed for smashing Frank Hurd's democratic majority.

In 1882, Mr. R. L. Wing, a banker at Kewaunee, in this state, ran for congress on the prohibition ticket. He now supports Blaine and Logan, and why he has changed he explains in this wise: "This is not the time for prohibitionists to throw away their votes, nor to aid in the election of a democratic president by voting the prohibition ticket."

Cleveland will be beaten in New York.

The Washington Critic hits the nail on the head when it said: "There is one way to make men stop drinking. That is, by making them prosperous and happy. In that way the republican party proposes to be the biggest prohibition party on record. A man with a happy, contented, respectable, educated family is not half so apt to drink as a man who is pinched and starved, and in despair over the outlook for his family and himself."

Mr. Blaine will arrive in Milwaukee on Saturday afternoon at half past one over the Northwestern road. The train will run on the following time:

Leaves Chicago at 9:30 A. M.
Arrives at Waukegan at 10:30 A. M.
Leaves Waukegan 10:45 A. M.
Arrives Kenosha 11:30 A. M.
Leaves Kenosha 11:30 A. M.
Arrives Racine 11:30 A. M.
Leaves Racine 12:45 P. M.
Arrives Bay View 1:15 P. M.
Arrives Milwaukee 1:30 P. M.

On returning he will be run through to Chicago in two hours and without a stop.

Cleveland cannot carry Connecticut.

Secretary McPherson, so long clerk of the house of representatives, who is now on the republican congressional committee, says he has no doubt but that Blaine will carry New York by 40,000 to 50,000 plurality. He thinks the democrats will make a warm fight in that state, but the republicans are in excellent trim, and there is no doubt of the result being a republican victory. The large republican gains in West Virginia, he says give good ground for believing that that state will go for Blaine next month.

"Gath" says he asked a Cincinnati German the other day why he was not tempted to vote wrong. Said he: "I considered that I had been generally and increasingly prosperous under twenty-four years of republican rule, and my confidence in the stability of America as the home of my children was confirmed. I never knew anything good to come out of trying the democratic party for even one year, and if they had the government four years I feared I might be drafted as I was in Germany."

Mr. Hendricks can't carry Indiana in 1884.

The Gazette has been asked if Blaine can be elected without New York. Mr. Blaine can lose that state and have three votes left, provided that he carries Indiana and Connecticut. Mr. Cleveland must carry New York to be elected, for he can carry no fother doubtful states that will make up for the loss of New York. The republicans are confident of carrying Indiana and Connecticut, and with the loss of New York have seven chances out of ten of electing Mr. Blaine. It may as well be written now as at any other time, that Cleveland is beaten.

Cleveland is not sure of carrying New Jersey.

FAR FROM THE TRUTH.

The Janesville City Times in the attempt to bolster up Mr. Cleveland's private character, says that the "Rev. J. B. Ball, who first made the charge against Cleveland, writes the following letter to a friend in Brooklyn, New York:

"DEAR SIR:—Not wishing to do Gov. Cleveland an injustice I would state—and you can make it public if you wish—that that the charge I made against him relative to Mrs. Halpin, was made from hearsay, and I find, upon investigation that the charge is false in every particular. Gov. Cleveland I find stands high among the moral element in both Buffalo and Albany. Not a word can be said against his moral character.

"Very truly,
"J. B. BALL."

And herein the Times does not stick to the truth. The "Rev. J. B. Ball," whoever he may be, did not first make the charge against Mr. Cleveland. It was the Rev. Dr. George H. Ball, and Dr. Ball has recently signed a letter with eight prominent ministers of Buffalo, to the Rev. James Freeman Clarke, of Boston, saying that the first charges are true to the letter, and kindly asking Mr. Clarke to visit Buffalo and investigate the subject for himself.

The Gazette has no desire to open the discussion of Cleveland's moral character for it has taken no part in the disgusting business, but common justice compels us to point out the error in which the City Times has fallen.

No copperhead can be elected vice president this year.

GERMANY UNDER PROTECTION.

It has been five years since Germany enacted its present protective tariff laws; and since that time there has been a significant improvement in the wages and the condition of the working people of that country. Consul Warner, of Dusseldorff, reports an increase between 1879 and 1884 in 320 industrial establishments of more than 51,000 workmen, and of about $1,200,000 in their aggregate monthly wages. By percentages, the number of workmen increased 32 2-10, and the aggregate wages 52 1-10 per cent. A workman who received $15 04 a month in 1879 receives $17 17 in 1884. In the machine works in five years the number of workmen increased 52 9-10 per cent. In the iron works the number of workmen increased 26 3-10 per cent. The total wages were increased 41 4-10 per cent, and the average single wages 11 3-10 per cent. This increase has taken place at a period when many works in England and some in France and Belgium were obliged to suspend operations and thousands of workmen were, thrown out of employment, while others suffered a reduction of wages.

It is worthy of special note that England is the only country in Europe whose rate of wages has decreased since 1878.

Cleveland can't come within 20,000 of carrying Wisconsin.

MR. BLAINE'S NOTED SPEECH AT SOUTH BEND.

When Mr. Blaine was at South Bend, Indiana, he made a speech six minutes long which was one of the most powerful arguments for the protection of the wages and the homes of American working people ever made by a public man in this country. There was a vast multitude to greet him, and when the storm of cheers had subsided, he spoke these solemn words:

"Men of Indiana: The struggle in all human society is first for bread. There is no use in propounding fine theories to a man who is hungry. There is no use in commending a political principle to one who is in need of shelter; there is no use in talking philosophy to one who is naked. Food and clothing are the primary requirements of human progress, and to secure this you must put the people in the way of earning good wages. [Shouts of "that's right" and cheers.] I never saw any man moved to enthusiasm by silently contemplating the prosperity of another [laughter] while he himself was in need. To move him you want to make feel his own prosperity. [Cheers.] The beginning, therefore, and the end of wise legislation is to give every man a fair and equal chance, and to leave the race of life open and free for all. [Cheering]"

Mr. Blaine then told the people of Indiana how the laboring man could get a fair chance in the race for fair wages, plenty of bread, and a good home, and said:

"Certainly it will not tend to that end to throw open our ports and say, send to all here your fabrics, made by the cheapest and most distressed labor of Europe to compete with our own people who are just opening their shops and building their factories, for if you do that you cannot spin a wheel or turn a lathe in these factories at home, unless you can get your labor at the European price. ["That's so."] We begin right there. From these considerations we deduce the conclusion that the protective tariff is primarily for the benefit of the laboring man, because if you take in your hand any manufactured article or cast your eye upon anything which cannot be taken in the hand, you find that the chief constituent element in its cost is labor. In many cases the material is but 1 per cent and the labor is 99 per cent in the cost of the article."

Then Mr. Blaine gave some historical facts which are among the crowning glories of the republican party. Every voter, no matter whether he is a democrat or a republican, a mechanic, a common laborer, a farmer or a merchant, should ponder these sublime facts in his heart. Speaking about what the republican party had done for the material advancement of the people, Mr. Blaine said:

"If you compare the two great political parties in relation to this question, you find that the republican party lives, moves breathes, and has its being in protection. [Great cheering.] A protective tariff was one of the first fruits of the election of Mr. Lincoln. We have had it for twenty years on the statute books, with various amendments which have been added from time to time to make it more protective, and the result is that all history, ancient, modern and medieval, may be challenged for a national progress like unto that which we have made since 1861. [Renewed cheers.] I am merely reciting the facts and figures of your assessors' books, and of the United States census tables, when I say that in the last twenty-three years of the history of this country we have added more wealth, double over, than we have acquired from the discovery of the continent by Columbus down to the election of Abraham Lincoln. [Prolonged cheering.] There must have been some peculiar and potent agent at work to produce this great result. That agent was the protective tariff, operating to nerve the arm of labor and reward it fairly and liberally. [Cheering.]"

Mr. Blaine then made a comparison—a comparison which should be understood by everybody because it is vital in this campaign. The great living issue, or rather one of the great living issues is the protective tariff, and in making a comparison, Mr. Blaine spoke as follows:

"You have before you the republican party, pledged to sustain the protective tariff, and illustrating that pledge by a specific and consistant example, extending through the last twenty-three years. You have on the other hand, the democratic party, which in fifty-one years, since 1833, has never, in a single instance voted for protection, and never controlled a congress that it did not oppose protection. ["That's so."] I say, therefore, to the laboring men and to the mechanics, some of whom may do me the honor to listen to me, your unions, your leagues, all those associations which you have formed for your own advantage and your own advancement, are well and proper in their way, it is your right to have them and to administer them as you choose, but they are not as strong as a rope of sand against the ill-paid labor of Europe if you take away the protective tariff, which is now your background and support. [Cheers.]"

Mr. Blaine then called attention to the fact that the republican party has made a deeper and a more glorious imprint in history than any other political organization that was ever charged with a great responsibility. These are some of the solemn and weighty facts that democrats can not keep back in this campaign. They will come to the front in spite of democratic opposition and lead the republican party to victory.

THE CAMPAIGN CHEER.

It Wakes the Echoes and Rends the Vault of Heaven.

Notes of a Day with the Political Leaders—The Temperature of the Canvass Away Up in the Nineties.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 23.—The train containing Mr. Blaine and party arrived at 5:15 p. m. When the distinguished statesman stepped from the train the crowd shouted themselves hoarse. The procession marched down Main street, which was decorated profusely. On the river front, at Sunset park, a large stand had been erected. The park was a scene of the wildest confusion. It was literally packed. Mr. Blaine was introduced by Hon. D. B. Kumler. He spoke at length on the tariff, addressing the farmers present particularly, and of the manufacturing interests of Indiana and the prosperity which has resulted from a protective tariff. At the close of his remarks the party was driven to the residence of Hon. William H. Hoffman for supper. At 8 o'clock a grand demonstration took place. It is estimated that between 6,000 and 10,000 men were in line, being drawn from Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky and Indiana. They were reviewed by Mr. Blaine at the residence of H. M. Sweetzer, a prominent merchant of this city. Blaine and party were the guests of Hon. William Hoffman during the night.

It is estimated that there were 40,000 people in the city. At night Mr. McKinley addressed a very large crowd of enthusiastic Republicans. It was the largest demonstration ever given in southern Indiana.

On the way here stops were made at Martinsville, Vincennes, Spencer and Princeton, and other points, at all of which there were great crowds of people waiting to see the Republican standard-bearer, who cheered him wildly when he made his appearance. At Vincennes he had the roughest reception of a kindly nature he has had yet. The stand was too far away. When he came to move back to his train, 2,500 people gathered about trying to shake him by the hand and to just touch him. The result was he was badly hustled. Finally, to escape, he climbed over a barbed-wire fence, and in so doing caught his right boot and had it badly torn across the top.

"Bob" Lincoln in the Field.

MATTOON, Ills., Oct. 23.—The weather Wednesday morning pleased the Republicans here by clearing up, though the roads were left in bad condition, and the great demonstration in honor of Secretary Lincoln went off with great enthusiasm. Mr. Lincoln arrived at 1 p. m. and was greeted by a very large crowd. It is estimated that there were at least 15,000 people on the streets. At 2 o'clock the procession commenced to move along Broadway toward the speakers' stand in the city park. At the head was the Tuscola broom-brigade, numbering fifty young ladies, dressed in white, carrying brooms and walking through the mud. Mattoon furnished thirty-eight ladies, mounted on horseback, and each escorted by a plumed knight. There were the usual number of wagons containing loads of girls to represent the states, and the whole display was very fine. At the park the secretary mounted the stand, which was handsomely decorated, and made a speech which was heartily cheered. Governor Hamilton and Congressman Cannon were also present and the former followed Mr. Lincoln in a short speech. At night there was a torchlight procession.

Ex-Governor Hendricks at Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Battery D armory was packed Wednesday night to hear Mr. Hendricks speak. Mark L. Crawford, in opening the proceedings, stated that the meeting had been called under the auspices of the Central Labor club. When Blaine's name in connection with the importation of Chinese was mentioned, it was received with hisses. When Mr. Hendricks ascended to stage there was the wildest enthusiasm. He spoke at some length, criticising the Republicans in the matter of tariff. He ridiculed the American navy and Robeson's administration as secretary thereof. Mr. Hendricks spoke of the dull times in the country and said that a change of administration could not but be beneficial. Henry Watterson also spoke.

The demonstration after the speaking was a brilliant affair, and Michigan avenue for blocks was lined with a dense crowd of people, while in the center the procession moved, the air being rent with cheers along the line. The reception was held at the Iroquois club, from where Mr. Hendricks reviewed the display. During Hendricks' speech an overflow meeting was held in the street.

Beecher Speaks for Cleveland.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The rain did not prevent 6,000 persons from going to the Brooklyn rink Wednesday night, to hear Rev. Henry Ward Beecher speak for Cleveland under the auspices of the young Republican Independents. Over 1,000 women were present, and the building was jammed, a number of well-known Democrats being present. The applause was terrific when Beecher stepped to the desk. His speech was a vigorous attack on Mr. Blaine, and on the Republican protection policy, and a eulogy of Mr. Cleveland, whom he declared to be "as simple as a child, as sincere as a saint, and of uncommon honesty."

He then read a letter from Mr. Cleveland to Mrs. Beecher, in which he positively denies the numerous reports circulated as to his life in Albany, and desires an interview with Mr. Beecher, that he may tell him that which he can not write. At the conclusion of his speech Mr. Beecher was vociferously cheered.

Rallies at Various Points.

ROCKFORD, Ills., Oct. 23.—The Republicans had their last rally of the campaign here Wednesday night. There was a very large parade by marching clubs from all the cities and towns in this section, and the residences and business blocks were profusely adorned. Speeches were made by Senator Cullom and Congressman Hitt.

STREATOR, Ills., Oct. 23.—The Democrats of this city and the surrounding country held a grand Carter Harrison rally here Wednesday. The number of strangers in the city was estimated at 15,000, and a torchlight procession of 5,000. One feature of the parade was a company of seventy-five young ladies on horseback.

JACKSONVILLE, Ills., Oct. 23.—The Democracy of this city held a grand jubilee Wednesday evening over the result of the elections of last week. William Brown and others made speeches.

Mr. Blaine's Appointments.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 23.—James G. Blaine having announced his desire to leave here direct for Milwaukee on the evening of the 24th inst., Gen. Logan will visit the towns between Springfield and Chicago on Saturday, the 25th inst. The following time-table has been furnished: Leave Springfield, 10 a. m., arrive Lincoln, 11 a. m.; leave Lincoln, 11:05 a. m., arrive Bloomington, 12:05 p. m.; leave Bloomington, 1:05 p. m., arrive Pontiac, 2:35 p. m.; leave Pontiac, 2:30 p. m., arrive Dwight, 3:10 p. m.; leave Dwight, 3:20 p. m., arrive Braidwood, 4:05 p. m.; leave Braidwood, 4:10 p. m., arrive Joliet, 5 p. m.; leave Joliet, 5:20 p. m., arrive Chicago, 7 p. m.

Baltimore City Election.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—The election in this city Wednesday for members of the first branch of the city council passed off quietly. There was no disturbance of any kind at any of the polling places, and the only unusual thing to be noted was the arrest of fourteen men in the Ninth ward on the charge of repeating. Out of twenty councilmen the Democrats elect eighteen, being a gain of five over last year. The Republicans capture the other two, one in the Fourteenth and one in the Fifteenth wards.

General Logan's Tour.

PEORIA, Ills., Oct. 23.—Gen. Logan received an ovation at this place Wednesday and spoke twenty minutes to a large audience. The procession in the afternoon was large and brilliant and the evening demonstration equalled, if it did not surpass, anything ever given here, there being from 5,000 to 7,000 torches in line. On his way here stops were made at Burlington, Iowa, and Monmouth and Galesburg, Ills., where the general was warmly welcomed.

Schurz at Boston.

BOSTON, Oct. 23.—The Independent reception to Carl Schurz Wednesday evening was one of the greatest political demonstrations of the campaign in this city. Tremont temple was packed, and the Melonaon was thrown open for an overflow and speedily filled. Mr. Schurz delivered substantially the same address used in Ohio.

New York Republicans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Republican convention Wednesday nominated Louis J. Phillips for mayor, Charles Spear for comptroller, and Col. Charles S. Spencer for district attorney.

Cleveland to Go to New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 23.—Governor Cleveland has notified the Democratic state committee of his acceptance of their invitation to visit New Haven Oct. 30. A mass-meeting will be held.

Perry Belmont Renominated.

JAMAICA, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Perry Belmont was renominated to congress Wednesday by the Democratic convention of the First district. James M. Oakley was defeated for the nomination.

The Signal Service.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 23.—Gen. Hazen, the chief signal officer, in his annual report, calls attention to the crippled condition in which the service has been left by the last two appropriation acts, and says that as a consequence seventeen stations of the meteorological service have been closed in order to send men to the telegraph lines. The increasing demands for special predictions in the interests of agriculture, special trades and commerce indicate in a measure, the report says, the value and importance of the indication division of the signal service. Gen. Hazen reports improvement in the work of this division, and then adds that further improvement could be made by an increase of stations, especially in the west and northwest. The report says that no general storm has passed over the country during the year without warning.

Getting Ready for the Parliamentary Struggle.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—The leaders of the Conservative and Liberal parties had elaborate banquets Wednesday night, on the eve of the opening of the October session of parliament. They were all numerously attended by the followers of the respective political chiefs. Perhaps the most successful event was Lady Granville's reception, which was notable for the number of prominent Conservatives as well as Liberals who were present. From hints dropped by those who had been granted a private hearing of the queen's speech to be read at the opening, it is understood that she will refer to the franchise bill as the chief object of the session and will not mention the redistribution scheme.

No exaggerated or fictitious certificates but solid facts, testify the marvelous cures of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

For the Fall Trade of Ladies' Garments, consisting of
Dolmans, Sacks, Paletots, New Markets, Russian Circulars,

Etc. We have these garments in Seal Plush, Plain and Brocaded Silk, and Plain and Diagonal Beavers.

To sum up the matter in a few words, we shall open on Tuesday, September 2d, 1884, the largest and best assortment of ladies fine garments ever shown in the interior of the state. We gave very large orders July 1st, to three different manufacturers of these goods, in order to have our goods made in the dull season of the year, when good help could be obtained to make garments, consequently our garments are much better made than garments are that are made late in the season when everybody is in a hurry, and manufacturers have to take any work they can get. Our garments are all tailor made, far superior to any that will be found at any other house in the city. It is a well known fact that we have taken the entire lead in the sale of ladies fine garments for the past two years, particularly Fine Seal Plush Sacques, Dolmans and Circulars, running in price from $25 to $75. In these goods we defy all competition.

We propose this year to beat any of our former efforts. We have the goods now ready for sale. Parties intending to buy garments this season the sooner they buy them the better the assortment will be to select from. We have now on hand a full assortment of sizes. Last season we had a good deal of trouble in getting sizes late in the season, and had to wait a long time to get them, and the garments were not so well made at that time of year, as they had to be rushed through.

We defy any house in Janesville to show as fine a stock of Seal Plush and Brocade Silk garments as we have at the present time.

We have just received three tons at one shipment of garments. We are told that we can never sell the amount of garments we have just received. We know we can for these garments will sell themselves. All we have to do is to show them.

Ladies desiring fine garments are respectfully requested to call early before the sizes are broken. Also a large stock of misses' and children's garments just received, very cheap.

RELIGIOUS FRENZY.

Sad Story of a Young Baltimore Girl.

Disappointment in Her Desire to Become a Nun She Becomes a Raving Maniac—Result of Excessive Study.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—The residents of North Calvert street, near Mulberry, were thrown into a state of intense excitement, at a late hour Sunday night by the frantic screams of a woman, which issued from the three-story dwelling of Michael Igo, a well known grocer, 93 Calvert street. The windows of the dwelling were violently shaken, and the sound of crashing furniture was mingled with piercing cries. Three policemen forced their way into the dwelling, and upon reaching the door of the front room second door they saw before them a perfectly nude young lady crouching on the floor, evidently a raving maniac. The unfortunate girl was Birdie Igo, aged 22 years. She had conceived a strong desire to become a nun, but being disappointed her mind was unable to stand the shock. She was very violent and raved in a manner painful to witness. Father Green, of the Josephite Fathers, was sent for. At the sight of the priest the poor girl became more tractable and proceeded in a wild and rhapsodical manner to repeat passages from the gospel of St. John relative to the power of changing wine into the body and blood of Christ. Father Green shook hands with her and then she allowed two ladies to enter her chamber and throw some clothing about her. She was taken to Spring Grove asylum Monday. Miss Igo is a delicately built young lady, and she was thoroughly educated at a parochial school. Several years ago she expressed a desire to enter a convent. She was accordingly placed under the instruction of Father Fitzpatrick, of St. Joseph. She arose every morning at 5 o'clock, and attended regularly to her religious admonitions and directions, and would return to him as often during the day as the priest required. She overtaxed herself with excessive study, became pale and emaciated, and nervous prostration supervened. She became melancholy, but nothing unusually strange was noticed until Thursday last, when she fainted while attending religious instructions, and was carried home. At Mount Hope her case was pronounced acute mania.

Loss by Fire.

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 23.—The Jersey Central depot here, a frame structure, eighty feet long, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. The heat from the fire was so great that all the trains had to be abandoned until the flames were subdued.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 23.—The manufacturing establishment of the Southern Barbed Wire company, corner Second and Webster streets, was completely destroyed by fire Wednesday night. Loss, $50,000; insurance, $30,000. The fire originated from the explosion of a spirit lamp. John Knolthoff and James E. Butler, employes of the concern, were caught in the second story of the burning building, and in escaping through the flames were badly burned. The Newark Wire Cloth company had $5,000 worth of goods stored in the building, all burned; insurance, $1,000.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 23.—A fire at the Company shops Wednesday destroyed six store houses and other buildings. Loss not known. But little insurance.

The Meridian Congress.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 23.—The International Meridian conference, upon motion of Count Lewenhaupt, of Sweden, has adopted as its final act a declaration embracing all the resolutions previously agreed upon, including that which proposes the adoption of the meridian passing through the center of the transit instrument at the observatory of Greenwich as the initial meridian for longitude, and that from this meridian longitude should be counted in two directions up to 180 degrees, east longitude being plus and west longitude minus. Resolutions of thanks to the president, Admiral Rogers, for his impartial decisions, etc., were also adopted. The rear admiral responded in a neat speech, and the conference then adjourned to meet again upon the call of the president for the purpose of verifying the protocols. This meeting, which will probably be the final one, will be held about the middle of next week.

Would Like to Have That Money.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—Charles F. Woerishaffer, the famous New York stock operator, who, with Mr. Frederick G. Renner, trades as Woerishaffer & Co., has filed a bill in equity against the Guarantee Trust Trust and Safe Deposit company, of this city, for the recovery of a cash claim of $18,640. They aver that the above amount of money was due on Oct. 1 on some 7 per cent. certificates of the Colorado Rolling Stock Trust, which were transferred to the Guarantee Trust company as trustees; that the money to pay both certificates and coupons has been paid to the holders, but that the Trust company has refused to pay those of the plaintiff, although the company admits holding the money. They ask the court to order immediate payment.

An Anti-Liberal Mob, This Time.

DUBLIN, Oct. 23.—During a meeting of Liberals Wednesday night at Armagh, called for the purpose of discussing the proposed franchise bill, a mob besieged the hall, smashed the windows and forced an entrance. The precise extent of his injuries is not yet known. Many others among the Liberals were hurt by stones and clubs. The police were utterly powerless to control the mob, who afterward wrecked a number of houses occupied by Liberals.

THE ARCTIC DEAD.

Commander Schley's Report as to the Mutilation of the Bodies.

WASHINGTON CITY, Oct. 23.—Commander Schley, of the Greely relief expedition, has submitted his report to the secretary of the navy. After giving a graphic picture of the scene at the camp where the starving men were found, and a detailed account of the progress to and from that place, the exhumation of the bodies, and the means taken to identify and preserve them, he says: "In preparing the bodies of the dead for transportation in alcohol to St. John's, it was found that six of them, Lieut. Kislingbury, Sergts. Jewell and Ralston, privates Whistler, Henry and Ellis, had been cut and the fleshy parts removed to a greater or less extent. All the other bodies were found intact. When the bodies of the dead were exposed in preparing them, the identification was found to be complete. Some of them could be recognized by aid of a picture taken with us from home. Others whose features had decayed were identified by other characteristics. I am therefore satisfied that no mistake was made in this important matter, which so impressed us from the beginning." He states that the total expense of the expedition will aggregate about $750,000, but that a considerable portion of this sum was for the purchase of the ships, which were returned in good condition.

THE B. & O. SHUT OUT.

It Now Has No Connection with New York or Philadelphia.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 23.—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company received the following communication from General Superintendent Kenney, of the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore railroad, Wednesday: "The injunction issued upon the complaint of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company by the circuit court of Baltimore, having been dissolved, you are hereby notified that the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore will not receive for transportation over its line any baggage express, passenger or sleeping cars of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad after receipt of this notice at your office. Your passenger equipment now in service north of Baltimore will be returned to you on the regular runs, up to and including train No. 37, which leaves Philadelphia at 3:45 a. m., Thursday."

The Baltimore & Ohio is now without a Philadelphia or New York connection, in consequence of which the through passengers arriving on the 3:45 p. m. and 7 p. m. trains Wednesday evening over the Baltimore & Ohio were transferred in busses through the city to Union station, where they took Pennsylvania cars for their destinations.

Riel Working Up a Row.

OTTAWA, Canada, Oct. 23.—The Dominion government is evidently uneasy at the headway Louis Riel is making in agitating the minds of the half-breeds and Indians of the northwest to insurrection. It is stated that 500 mounted police have been ordered to Battleford to look after the notorious mischief-maker and rebel. Riel is now exciting the half-breeds, who, in their turn, are poisoning the minds of the free Indians and making them dissatisfied with their present condition. From this time out Riel will be kept under close surveillance of the police and every movement will be reported to headquarters. It is said that in view of the impending trouble the mounted police force will be increased from 500 to 800 men.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The Post Express says: In June last a man giving his name as Col. E. Pratt Buell, of Warsaw, Ind., came to Rochester and was married to Mrs. Fidella A. Ross, of this city. They went to Europe on a wedding tour, returning in September. It is understood that the grand jury has indicted Buell for bigamy. While courting Mrs. Ross here he sported a large diamond shirt-stud, which he said cost $3,500, and was presented to him by Gen. Grant and Postmaster-General James at a dinner given by them in his honor in New York. He gave Mrs. Ross a large quantity of what she supposed was diamond jewelry, but what is now found to be paste. Buell's whereabouts are unknown.

Governor Cleveland's Assailant.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Samuel Boone, who assaulted Governor Cleveland has been pronounced sane by the physicians. On Wednesday afternoon he was arraigned. Governor Cleveland sent a request that the court inflict no punishment on his assailant. A telegram from Auburn prison stated that Fairbanks, Boone's brother-in-law, had become insane. Boone said he had no previous intention to assault Governor Cleveland, that he acted from the impulse of the moment, and that he was very sorry. The justice, after an admonition, discharged him from custody. Boone left for Elmira accompanied by his wife and father-in-law.

The Canonchet Estate.

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 23.—The United States circuit court has rendered an opinion in the famous case of the Canonchet estate, Francis D. Moulton vs. Zacharia Chaffe, to secure possession of the property purchased at auction. The estate is the South Kingstown residence of ex-Governor Sprague, situated near Narragansett pier, and was a portion of that property disposed of by Trustee Chaffe. Judge Colt holds that Sprague's right of title and interest must be shown. Decision was postponed to await further evidence.

The Starving Labrador Fishermen.

MONTREAL, Oct. 23.—Dr. Forting, M. P. for Gaspe, has just returned from the Labrador coast, and confirms the statements regarding the miserable condition of the fishermen there. As says the total catch was 218 tons, and only realized $800, and that unless the government intercedes, starvation threatens the people. The same state of affairs prevails at the Magdalen islands, where, owing to the stormy weather, the herring fishery is a complete failure.

BULWER LYTTON' SBRIDGE.

Where it Touches the Shores and the Great Columns in Mid-Stream.

"What a beautiful bridge between old age and childhood is religion. How intuitively the child begins with prayer and worship on entering life, and how intuitively on quitting life old man turns back to prayer and worship, putting himself again side by side with the infant." remarks Sir E. Bulwer Lytton, in his "Strange Story."

Yes, but between its distant abutments the bridge of life has many high and awful arches through which the wild waters dash and roar in wrath and desolation. Prayer and worship alone do not sustain these. Nature's solid rocks must lie unshaken beneath, and human art and skill must rear and solidify the structure overhead. God's will is best exemplified in the laws He has made for the creatures whom He has placed under their control. Neither the child's trustful "Our Father" nor the old man's "Forget me not in the midst of mine infirmities," will alter this by the weight of a single grain.

Science and art first—then faith and prayer—is the order of Heaven itself. Divinity heals through its agents, and those agents are the discoveries of men; not the vague announcements of prophets or seers. Is life a burden to you? Does time drag? Is your power to cope with life's problems and duties weakened? You are not well. Your blood is sluggish and tainted perhaps; or some important organ is torpid or overworked. Then fact says you have taken the form of dyspepsia, rheumatism, gout, malaria, pains in the stomach, chronic headache, or any of a dozen other ills. PARKER'S TONIC will invigorate you, as fresh air invigorates those who have been shut up in damp, fetid cells. It is powerful, pure, delicious, scientific, safe—the keystone of the central arch of the bridge of life.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.
HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried.
A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.
JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles.
E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

LITTLE HOO-PEE.

Thought the War Would Close Before He Had a Chance.

How the First Arkansaw Charged on a Federal Battery at Shiloh—The Carnage in the "Butcher-Pen."

[Arkansaw Traveler.]

"One of the bravest regiments that fought in the southern army," said an old soldier, at a pleasant reunion of the "Blue and the Gray," "was the First Arkansaw, commanded by James Fagan, a man whom we all knew as the soul of courage and generosity. At the battle of Shiloh, Fagan's regiment, together with other troops, including Bate's regiment, of Tennessee, occupied a place of tantalizing reserve. The battle raged with fury, and every southern officer thought that the war would close with the terrific fight. Sometime during the afternoon, Fagan approached Hindman, and with tears streaming from his eyes, exclaimed:

"'Yes, the war is about over and the First Arkansaw must return home without merited distinction. It is a shame, sir, to be thus treated.'

"Hindman tried to console the gallant colonel, but with tears of disappointment streaming from his eyes he turned and sought his men. During the day a Federal battery, strongly supported, had made what was known as the 'butcher-pen.' Time and again, vain attempts had been made to capture the battery. At last an order to charge the engines of destruction was sent to Col. Fagan. His face blazed with the renewal of hope. Forming his men, he stood high in his stirrups and said,

"'Gentlemen, and brave soldiers of Arkansaw, at last our glorious opportunity has come. Indeed will Arkansaw this day be proud of her noble sons. We must take that battery.'

"A loud cheer arose.

"'Fix bayonets, charge!'

"The regiment swept forward, without a break, like a rope tightly drawn. Down into the 'butcher-pen' dashed the brave men, but human flesh and mortal courage could not endure the carnage. Bleeding and torn, leaving many a comrade, the First Arkansaw was repulsed, but the brave boys were soon rallied. 'Men of Arkansaw,' exclaimed Col. Fagan, again addressing the command, 'the time has come when we must distinguish ourselves. That battery must be taken.'

"Another cheer, though not nearly so loud as the first, arose. The men moved forward and again went down into the 'butcher-pen.' No earthly force could resist the terrible fire, and again the brave men were hurled back. Fagan rallied his men, took off his hat, and exclaimed: 'Men, that battery must be taken.' He waited to hear the cheer. It did not come. One wheezy-voiced man at the extreme left threw up his head and shouted:

"'Hoo-peo!'"

"That was the nearest approach to a shout. The men went down into the butcher-pen, but when they came back, little 'Hoo-pee' was not with them."

The American's Endurance of Cold.
[Medical Record.]

Lieut. Greely is of the opinion that his men, if well provisioned, could not have continued to live at Fort Conger more than five years. The constitution of the average American is not capable of prolonged continuous adjustment to more than zero cold, and such acclimatization could only come about after a series of generations where the law of survival of the fittest should operate, and in correspondence with a radical change in organization, in which nutritive and muscular development should predominate over cerebral development; in other words, nature has shown us in the mentally dwarfed but physically hardy Esquimaux, the types of organization best fitted for living in these septentrional latitudes.

It, however, is no less a matter of fact that the inhabitants of meridianal climes admirably adapt themselves temporarily to the most extreme cold. In the retreat from Moscow, in 1812, the Italian regiments stood the cold better than the Germans, and notably better than the Russians, who were accustomed to the climate. The Turks presented the same relative immunity at the siege of Sebastopol. Longet, from whom the facts are taken, remarks that the aptitude to resist inclement temperature is acquired and lost in turn; that people nurtured in temperate or cold climates, who go to the torrid zone to live, are much less sensitive to the cold for a time after their return to their native country, though this lessened susceptibility disappears after a year or two.

NEWS FROM GOTHAM.

The Paper Trade Meets and Discusses Rags.

A New Anæsthetic—Patti Comes Too High, and We Can't Have Her—Arrest of a Forger.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A hundred and fifty members of the American Paper Manufacturers' association met Wednesday in the Metropolitan hotel to consider what to do to benefit the trade in the unsettled state of the rag and paper market. The association has seven departments, consisting of the writing, book, news, manilla, straw, wrapping paper and straw-board divisions. All the divisions were invited to the meeting and members were present from large paper-mills all over the country. President William H. Parsons, of this city, said that on Aug. 30 the treasury department prohibited the importation of old rags from foreign ports for three months. A committee of paper manufacturers persuaded the officers at Washington to modify the order, so that one month's supply was landed and distributed. Yet rags are from 30 to 50 per cent. higher than they should be. No information can be obtained from Washington as to whether the order will be continued or allowed to drop on Dec. 1.

Augustine Smith, of this city, said that the public has been led to believe that great danger exists in rags, but the belief should be discarded. Eminent physicians in Europe declared that cholera is not transmitted in rags. When an application was made last summer in England to prevent the importation of rags from France to England, Sir Charles Dilke refused to entertain the application. Wellington Smith, of Lee, Mass., said that the government's action was based on no data and was therefore arbitrary. There was nothing to show that infection existed amongst imported rags. President W. H. Parsons, Secretary D. P. Crocker, and Senator Warner Miller of New York, and William Whiting and William A. Russell, of Massachusetts, were appointed a committee to take such action as it thinks to be for the best interests of the paper-makers. Leslie G. Wead offered resolutions explaining the indignation of the association at the course pursued by the United States treasury department. Wellington Smith and other members said that while a good many paper manufacturers felt as Mr. Wead did, yet it might be unwise to antagonize the government, from which they might have to ask favors. Mr. Wead said he was not certain that the paper-makers would make anything by appearing as suppliants before the treasury department. By standing up for their rights they might get more than by calling the government officials good fellows and all that. He, however, withdrew the resolutions. It was resolved that the manufacturers should curtail their production 50 per cent., and that the details of the reduction should be referred to the divisions of the association for immediate action.

No Trills from Patti.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Rumors were current Wednesday that news had been received by the directors of the Academy of Music to the effect that Mme. Patti would not appear in this city as announced and intended. Investigation showed that these rumors were founded upon fact. The directors of the Academy agreed to pay to Mr. Mapleson a subsidy of about $700 for each and every performance during the season in which Mme. Patti and Mme. Nilsson should take part, the payments to be made to the manager weekly. Mr. Mapleson cabled for $16,000 to close the contract with the diva, and a discussion took place among the directors whether to send it or not. It is understood, however that one of the opponents of the action urged that if the $16,000 asked for was sent to Europe it would only meet Mme. Patti's exactions for three representations, and, after these had occurred, it was feared that the stockholders would have to come forward once more under penalty of silencing the song-bird. The result of this view of the matter was a cable dispatch to Mr. Mapleson setting forth that the money requested could not be forwarded. Wednesday Mr. Mapleson telegraphed to Mr. Augustus L. Brown that Mme. Patti had notified him to remove her name from the prospectus of the season.

Important Medical Discovery.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—One of the consulting oculists of the Mount Sinai hospital had occasion to perform an operation for the removal of a mature cataract in the capsule of a woman's eye. He had learned, some time ago, the remarkable properties of hydrochlorate of cocaine, which were discovered by a Heidelberg student while experimenting with cocoa. His discovery was that this drug dropped into the eye would render it insensible to feeling. This material the Mount Sinai surgeon, knowing that it had already been successfully used as a local anæsthetic, used on the eyes of his patient, and the operation was performed without her suffering any pain whatever. She is doing well, and the operation was regarded as thoroughly successful. The new anæsthetic deadens the nerves, but does not injure them nor the surrounding skin. Theodore Hadel, superintendent of the hospital, said that it was not yet known whether it would act on other portions of the body as it did on the eyes. Its general use, he thought, would be prevented by its cost. The price at present is $5,000 per pound.

Forger Taken In.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Joseph Moses Bohrendt, otherwise known as F. Barnett, was arrested Wednesday by Deputy United States Marshal Bernhard as a fugitive from justice. He came to the United States a year ago from Elbing, in Prussia, where he carried on farming and a mercantile business. It is alleged that before leaving Elbing he forged the name of one Bernes to drafts for over 1,000,000 marks. At that time he was a bankrupt. The complaint against him is made by the German consul general.

The Cut in Railway Rates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A general calm seems to have fallen upon the passenger business of the city within the past two days. The cut in rates by the West Shore, which was expected to produce great commotion among tourists and travelers, has failed to bring about the desired result. The Erie cut in rates went into effect Wednesday. They are the same as the West Shore—$15 to Chicago, $4.65 to Buffalo.

Actors on the Road.
[Philadelphia Times.]

A theatrical company came to this city from Buffalo, over the Lehigh Valley railroad, on the train that arrived at Ninth and Green streets at 7 o'clock the other morning. Two young men of the company occupied seats in the middle of the cars. One slept, while the other kept walking through the cars. As the train neared Sugar Notch, just below Wilkesbarre, the one that was sleeping wakened as the actor who had been making the tour of the train returned.

"Where's old Polonius?" asked the one that had been sleeping.

"Polonius is slightly groggy; he's asleep in the next car."

"How are the King and Queen getting along?"

"Just as I left the other car she was washing her face at the water-cooler with her handkerchief and the King was tugging at a flask."

"How about the First Grave-digger?"

"Intensely drunk and rolled up into a ball on one of the seats."

"Did you see anything of Laertes?"

"He's up in the baggage car playing poker with the baggage-master."

"And Ophelia, where is she?"

"Ah! Ophelia! She is chewing at an alleged tongue sandwich that I bought her at Wilkesbarre."

"Are the players well bestowed?"

"They are, my lord."

"Well, let's take a swig and go up into the smoking car and have a pipe."

"A few minutes afterward the actors, in the midst of a cloud of smoke, were earnestly discussing the outlook for the season.

The Managing Editor's Advice.
[Pittsburg Chronicle.]

"In soft, adumbrant meshes of sieved silver the sunbeams melted through the leaves and dripped in spangles of gold upon the brown and black moquettrie of shadows that led to the ragged edge of the curb where a fragile little fragment of humanity lay moaning."

"That's all right enough," said the managing editor, "but it's a little too long. Make it shorter."

"But what will I say, sir?" asked the blonde reporter.

"Oh, I'd just say 'Hennessy Mulcahey's little boy Pat fell into an open sewer and broke his nose.' That'll do for an introduction, and then you can go on and say what's necessary about the careless manner in which these things are conducted, and that under another administration of our local government, and so on, you know. Give 'em a rap, that's all."

Going Back on Moses.
[Texas Siftings.]

Moso Schaumburg is in the habit of getting about 2 par cant. a month on money loaned. Kosiusko Murphy, who is one of Mose's customers, was talking with him a few days ago at his store on Austin avenue.

"Why don't you eat pork sausage?" asked Murphy.

"Pecause dot vash forbidden by Moses."

"And you don't work on Saturday."

"Dot also vash forbidden by the laws of Moses. I always keeps the laws of Moses vatover else vicked I do."

"You do, do you? How about money? Doesn't Moses forbid you from taking more than the legal rate of interest?"

"Mishter Murphy, have you read dose papers in dot Mishter Vanderpilt has solt Maud S. for forty thousand tollars? Choost dink vat a fine horse dot mush pe, eh? Good bye, I sees you later."

Happy All Around.
[Boston Jingo.]

"I'll tell you how it is, Algernon," she said in musical murmurs.

"Yes, Maud," he replied, in subdued tones, watching her, with the reflected light of the moon in her deep-brown eyes.

"Pa has money, you have none. Pa is a free trader, you are a protectionist."

"Yes," with rising inflections and doubtful tone.

"I will suggest that pa make a free trade of my hand for your business ability, and then I'll look to your arm for protection."

"Bless you, my children," from a stentorian voice on the back piazza.

The Proud Young Man.

The Graphic tells of a proud young man who was too vain to take off his cork leg when he went in bathing before his lady friends. The inexorable law of gravitation turned him upside down, and he was drowned in sight of the fair ones he had hoped to charm.

EXCRU

CIATING is expressive of the most intense pain, and yet sufferers from Rheumatism and Neuralgia say it does not express the agony they endure.

CAN THE PAIN BE RELIEVED?

Mr. Benj. F. Congdon, Randolph, N. Y., writes:

"Mrs. Mary J. Wilcox is using ATHLOPHOROS now continually for long-standing Inflammatory Rheumatism, probably her case is incurable, but nothing else gives her such relief from the excruciating pains as ATHLOPHOROS."

No medicine has ever been produced that has been so successful as

and testimonials regarding its efficacy come unsolicited from all parts of the country.

Mr. R. B. Watson, 181, 18th St. Detroit, Mich. says:

"About March 1st, my wife was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism, upper and lower limbs swollen badly, suffered intense pain, and part of the time obliged to remain in bed. Tried various remedies with no relief; was induced to try ATHLOPHOROS May 1st. After taking six doses, pain was entirely gone and swelling nearly all reduced. The medicine has worked like a charm, and I feel assured that another bottle or two will give positive cure."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us, as directed.

TUTT'S PILLS

TORPID BOWELS, DISORDERED LIVER, and MALARIA.

From these sources arise three-fourths of the diseases of the human race. These symptoms indicate their existence: Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Sick Headache, fullness after eating, aversion to exertion of body or mind, Eructation of food, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, A feeling of having neglected some duty, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, highly colored Urine, CONSTIPATION, and demand the use of a remedy that acts directly on the Liver. As a Liver medicine TUTT'S PILLS have no equal. Their action on the Kidneys and Skin is also prompt; removing all impurities through these three "scavengers of the system," producing appetite, sound digestion, regular stools, a clear skin and a vigorous body. TUTT'S PILLS cause no nausea or griping nor interfere with daily work and are a perfect

ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA.

HE FEELS LIKE A NEW MAN.

"I have had Dyspepsia, with Constipation, two years, and have tried ten different kinds of pills, and TUTT'S are the first that have done me any good. They have cleaned me out nicely. The republican assembly district convention for the second district of Rock county will be held at the common council chamber in the city of Janesville, Wednesday October 29th, 1884 at 2 o'clock, p. m, to nominate a candidate for member of assembly, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Janesville, October 23d, 1884.

Brieflets.

—Chilly weather for torch light parades.

—Put it down in your diary—October 23d, 1884, first snow storm of the season.

—Janesville Commandry No. 2, Knights Templar, occupy Masonic hall this evening.

—The Cleveland and Hendricks club hold a business meeting this evening in their club rooms.

—A large number of Janesville people will go to Chicago on Saturday to see the next president.

—There are two thousand four hundred and eighty-nine registered votes in the city of Janesville.

—The Manitoba wave struck this city last evening, and this morning our citizens witnessed the first snow storm of the season.

—The names of ex-Mayors A. P. Lovejoy and Pliny Norcross are prominently spoken of in connection with the office of assemblymen in this district.

—A medium sized steel key—for large door lock or safe—was picked up this morning near the express office. Call at the Gazette counting room.

—Patrick Sheridan was before the municipal court to-day charged with drunkenness, and was fined one dollar and $3.92 costs. Michael Holleran was sent to jail our days on a similar charge.

—The Concordia society will give one of their popular dances at Concordia hall, Monday evening, November 3d Music by Smith & Corliss' band. Tickets 50 cents.

—The next social party of the Union club will be given in Apollo hall on Friday evening of this week. Parties holding invitations to the previous parties are invited to attend the above.

—We publish this afternoon the corrections, erasures, and additions of names made by the boards of registry in the first, second and fourth wards. The number of registered voters in the city is given at 2,489.

—We understand that Mr. M. L. Richardson, president of the board of education, of this city, will deliver a lecture before the city school teachers and others, at the Central school building, on Saturday, November 1st, at 10 o'clock a. m., taking for his subject, "Astronomical Geography." We have no doubt that Mr. Richardson will deliver an interesting and edifying lecture.

—The republican assembly district committee, for this (the second) district of Rock county—the city of Janesville, and the towns of Janesville and Rock—has called a convention for Wednesday, October 29th, in the council chamber at 2 p. m. of that day, to nominate a candidate for the assembly. It has been suggested that the town and ward committees call the caucuses for Tuesday evening next, at 7:30 o'clock.

—Messrs. Pitcher & Ziegler, the popular clothiers, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, are offering some extraordinary bargains in the way of pants. They have an extra large stock of pants which they are compelled to dispose of to make room for other goods, and are actually offering these goods at less than cost. A pair of pants which they formerly sold at $5 they now offer for $2 and $2.50. This is is a fact, and no humbug. Call at their establishment and satisfy yourself.

—Several Janesville people went to Rockford last evening to witness the torch light procession and illuminations, and returned home this morning. The demonstration was a grand success, but not so large as the one in this city on Thursday last. The illuminations and fire works were grand, the latter being confined wholly to the vicinity of the court house, where rockets and Roman candles were exploded by the thousand. The city was full of visitors, and every one was pleased at the grand display of republican enthusiasm.

—The Chicago & Northwestern railway will run a special train to Chicago, to the grand republican demonstration (providing one hundred tickets can be sold,) leaving Janesville Saturday of this week at 3:15 p. m., and returning, leave Chicago at eleven o'clock the same evening. Fare for the round trip, $2.95, just half the usual rates. Passengers have the privilege of returning on any train until and including Monday night. It is necessary that the desired number of names be secured as soon as possible, and those who intend to go will leave their names at King's book store to-day.

—Mr. W. D. McKey, of this city, was married last evening at Aurora, Indiana, to Miss Grace Appleton, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's parents at five o'clock. The bride is well known in Janesville, having frequently visited here during the residence of the Rev. T. W. McLean, a former pastor of Trinity church, whose wife is a sister. During these visits she made many friends, one of the number now proving more than a friend. Mr. and Mrs. McKey are expected to reach Janesville, their future home, on Saturday evening, when they will receive the hearty congratulations of all.

—The "Badger" stove and range, which have heretofore been fully described in the columns of the Gazette, are becoming very popular wherever introduced. Already this season about ninety Badger stoves and rangers have been sold to families in this vicinity, and they are giving the very best satisfaction. Yesterday seven were sold in this city, and orders continue to come in for more. They are meeting with ready sale at other points, and the manufacturers and patentees no doubt will reap a rich reward for their excellent stoves. They can be found in this city at Mr. John Griffiths hardward store on West Milwaukee street, and at N. Griswold's, on North Main street, who will give all desired information concerning their excellence.

Personal.

—Hon. B. Dunwiddie and A. S. Douglas, Esq., of Monroe, are in the city today attending to legal business.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hollister, of Richland Center, were in the city a short time this afternoon, enroute for Darlington.

—Miss Laura Warn, of Charles City, Iowa, is visiting at the residence of Mr. John Kay, of Linn street, in the fifth ward. Miss Warn is a sister of Mrs. Kay.

Political Preference.

Perhaps in all the history of political campaigns the one in which the country is now engaged has occasioned more bitterness of personal feeling than any which has preceded it. Men of both parties become so excited as to ignore the common courtesies of life and in some instances warm, personal friendship has been sacrificed for party preference. The same spirit enters into the business relations of life and presents situations extremely ludicrous. An instance occurred at a barber shop on the east side the other day, which shows how much more a man thought of democracy than he did of a good job of hair dressing by a first class tonsorial artist.

The lady that presided took her place at the chair as the gentleman came in and took his seat. After straightening out the tangled locks, she stood with shears in hand ready to commence operations when he said.

"I notice you wear a Blaine badge, are you a republican?" The lady replied that she was not a voter but that her husband was a member of the party in question.

"Take off this towel and let me go," was the quick reply. "No repulican can have the pleasure of speculating on any of my money even in a barber shop," and out he went in search of a more congenial atmosphere. He ought to go south where everything is solid If we would stop long enough to remember that we shall all be neighbors after the 4th of November and the most of us doing business at the same old stands, it might help us to use a little common sense, democratic or republican rule will not annihilate the country and the intense rivalry that exists between the parties ought not to annihilate the better judgment of party champions.

A Letter of Thanks.

Hon A. M. Carter, Chairman and Members of a Mass Convention of Farmers of the Third Assembly District, of Rock County, Held in Janesville, Oct. 14th, 1884.

GENTLEMEN:—Having been informed of your action, I take this opportunity to express to you my grateful appreciation of your cordial indorsement of me as your candidate for member of the assembly from this district. Recognizing, as I do the fact that the farming community is the most important element of the body politic, and that the prosperity of society as a whole is commensurate with that of the agricultural class, I shall ever feel it my duty, as it will most certainly be my pleasure, to do all within my power to promote the interests of the farmer, whenever I may be in a position so to do. Thanking you again, I am, sirs, your obedient servant,
J. C. BARTHOLF.

OBITUARY.

EUGENE H. STRUNK.

A few days ago the Gazette made a brief mention of the death of Mr. Eugene H. Strunk, at Windom, Minn., on Tuesday, October, 14th. The Cottonwood County Citizen, of October 18th, has been received, and contains the following obituary, which will be read with feelings of deep sympathy by the many friends of the deceased in Janesville:—

"It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the death of one of our most promising and exemplary young men—E. H. Strunk, of the lumber firm of A. F. & E. H. Strunk & Co.

He died of typhoid fever at the Clark house on Tuesday evening last, after an illness of four or five weeks. His case received all the attention and care that a skillful physician and loving parents could give, but the grim Destroyer had marked him for his own and it was of no avail.

He was unconscious during a large portion of his illness, but before his death he revived consciousness and bade all good bye, repeating the Lord's Prayer with Mrs. Woodward, who was a very attentive nurse during his illness. He was not afraid to die, and his soul passed into eternity with that calm and peaceful resignation which only an unstained conscience can give.

Although residing among us but one short year, Eugene has made many friends, and there are none but too deeply regret his death. During his stay among us he has been an upright, honest young man, of excellent habits, and a man whose aim seemed to be to "do unto others as he would that they should do unto him," and we sincerely believe that at the day of the judgment of all souls 'Gene will be assigned a seat at the right hand of of the great Judge who doeth all things well.

The remains were conveyed to his former home at Lake Crystal on Wednesday, and were escorted to the depot by the Windom Lodge of A. O. U. W. of which he was a member, and a large number of sympathizing friends. The last sad rites were performed at that place on Thursday, and attended by a number of Brother workmen and other Windom friends."

Sale of a Saratoga Spring.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The Empire Spring, for many years and until recently the chief rival of the Congress Spring, was sold at auction for $65,000. Some years ago the Congress and Empire springs were placed under one proprietorship, called the Congress & Empire Spring company, to stop ruinous competition. Since then the business of the Empire has not been pushed so vigorously, and its business fell off. It was bid in by Saratoga and New York parties, who will enter the field energetically. The price is considered low.

Woolen-Mills Want Water.

DOVER, N. H., Oct. 23.—The woolen-mills of South Berwick have shut down from lack of water power. Rivers, streams and wells are very low, and farmers are driving their cattle long distances for water. If there is not rain soon mills depending upon water power must run on short time.

An Infernal Machine in a Church.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—An infernal machine was found Wednesday in a church at Montceaules mines, the scene of the late labor troubles. The machine was charged with 300 grammes of dynamite and 100 grammes of gun powder. The fuse had been half burned.

Fled with the Relief Fund.

MARSEILLES, Oct. 23.—M. Daumas, connected with the municipal government, has fled with $4,000 of the cholera relief fund. The people are highly incensed at the loose management which made the embezzlement possible.

BOHEMIAN LIFE IN THE TYROL.

On Mountain Heights—Young Tyrolean Peasants—The Alpine "Jodel."

[Tyrol Cor. Pioneer Press.]

The heat of the afternoon sun, which the spacious rooms of the Neue and Alta Pinakothek, with their glorious pictures, could not help us to forget, drove us at last to the mountains of Tyrol's quaint old capital, Innsbruck on the Inn. Hotel life, with its stately table d'hote, its conventional portier and obsequious waiters, was not to be thought of, so we determined to seek a villa, or rather a portion of a summer villa where we could live the bohemienne life of wandering artists, and leave our sketch books, panels and palettes just where we pleased, eat when we were hungry, and sleep in no dread of a rising or dressing bell.

A pretty shop girl from whom we were purchasing alpen-flower-pressing portfolios, and to whom we applied in our need, directed us to the very place we wanted. On the side of one of the eastern hills that slope down to the madly rushing green-gray waters of the river Inn, we found the remains of an old castle, which the unæsthetic culture of fifty years ago had converted into a "schlossartig" villa, leaving the tower foundations as they were, and carrying up from them two octagon turrets which form the most charming boudoirs and morning rooms an artist ever pictured.

There are no end of lovely walks and excursions to mountain heights, where alpen roses and edelweiss grow and every valley has its legend of love or mysterious murder. Society as we have found it, is more than "charming," highly cultured and intellectual. There is even a courteous gallantry about the young Tyrolean peasants which would do credit to many a society man in England and America. In no country, perhaps, are better natural musicians found. There is a richness and compass to the voices of the Tyrolese which is astonishing to find outside of Italy, and notwithstanding their constant habit of singing in the open air, and the peculiar use of the two vocal tones, the reed and flute qualities of voice in their Alpine jodel, incorrectly termed "warbling," they preserve their voices to an advanced age. The playing of the zither is also one of their most musical attributes (it is more a matter of nature than accomplishment) and nothing can exceed the tenderness and beauty of the tones they draw from that little tablet of delicate steel strings. To rightly apprehend the exquisite effects of Tyrolean music it should be heard in the Tyrol from Tyrolese zither players, and mountain jodel singers on these Alpine heights.

Mr. Fethers' Appointments.

The republican state central committee has assigned Ogden H. Fethers to the following places:

Darlington, Thursday, October 23.
Beloit, Monday, October 27th.
Hanover, Wednesday, October 29.
Elkhorn, Friday, October 31.
Edgerton, Saturday, November 1.
Clinton, Monday, November 3.

Mr. Fethers has received over one hundred invitations to speak in prominent places in the state, but his pressing professional business compels him to decline all except those given above.
